THE LAST TIME THEY MET: In Bethlehem last fall, kicker Brian Reckenbeil kicked school records of four field goals and 15 total points to lead Moravian to a 33-10 victory over Johns Hopkins University in Centennial Conference action at Rocco Calvo Field. The Greyhounds improved to 4-0 overall for the second straight season and the sixth time in school history. Moravian didn't take long to score in the contest. The Greyhounds won the coin toss for the fourth straight game but deferred to the second half. Reckenbeil's opening kickoff hit Johns Hopkins running back Nick Fazio in the hands at the JHU 14 yard line and bounced away. Greyhound defensive back David Wacker fell on the ball at the 22-yard line. Moravian tailback Tyler McCambridge needed just six seconds to cover the 22-yards to the end zone for his seventh rushing touchdown of the season. Reckenbeil added the extra-point for a 7-0 Greyhound lead just 12 seconds into the game. Johns Hopkins would take the ensuing kickoff and move into Moravian territory before the Blue Jay drive stalled at the 47-yard line, forcing a punt. After a five-yard run by McCambridge and a one yard run by fullback Morgan deRouen, Greyhound quarterback Marc Braxmeier hit McCambridge with an 81-yard catch and run for a touchdown, the second longest scoring pass in Moravian history. Reckenbeil connected on his 50th straight extra-point to give the Greyhounds a 14-0 lead with 9:49 to play in the first quarter. The Blue Jays, who entered the game leading the Centennial Conference in scoring at 40.7 points per game, would score on their next drive. Johns Hopkins had a short field after a pair of Moravian penalties on the kickoff set the Blue Jay offense up at the Moravian 45-yard line. Nine plays later, Johns Hopkins quarterback Hewitt Tomlin connected on a 14-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver D.J. Hartigan. Kicker Alex Lachman connected on his 38th straight extra-point to pull the Blue Jays within 14-7 with 6:29 remaining on the clock in the first quarter. Moravian would run just three plays before punting for the first time in the game. However, the Greyhounds would get the ball back after just one play when defensive lineman Doug Bocchino forced Tomlin to fumble. Moravian linebacker Jayson Williams (Collingswood, NJ/Collingswood HS), who returned to the line-up after being injured in the season opener, covered the ball at the JHU 25-yard line. The Greyhounds would pick up a first down to move into the red zone before the drive stalled at the five-yard line. Reckenbeil came on to his a 22-yard field goal with 2:46 to play in the first quarter, giving Moravian a 17-7 lead. On the fourth play of the next Johns Hopkins drive, Greyhound defensive back Carl Robinson intercepted a Tomlin pass at the Moravian 42-yard line. However, the Greyhounds were unable to move the ball and punted after three plays. The Blue Jays would embark on 11-play drive after the punt that Lachman capped with a 34-yard field goal to pull Johns Hopkins within 17-10 with ten minutes to go until halftime. Neither team would score in the remainder of the first half. Moravian's two drives would end in Reckenbeil just missing a 41-yard field goal wide right and a punt while Johns Hopkins drives ending with Greyhound defensive back Erik Brinkerhoff intercepting a Tomlin pass at the Moravian-ten yard line and returning it 16 yards, and the clock running out on the Blue Jays in the red zone before they could call a timeout after a 17-yard completion from Tomlin to running back Andrew Kase. Johns Hopkins, which came into the game leading the Centennial Conference in turnover margin at a plus-eight, had four turnovers in the first half but still had gained 279 yards of offense, including 127 yards on the ground both higher than Moravian's defensive game averages for the season. Moravian received the opening kickoff of the second half but would punt after three plays. The Blue Jays picked up a pair of first downs on their first drive after the half but would eventually punt as well. Moravian would punt again after three plays. However, the Greyhounds would get the ball back two plays later when Kase lost handle of the ball and fumbled. Moravian defensive lineman Michael McClarin (Bethlehem, PA/Liberty HS) would cover the ball at the JHU 48-yard line. Braxmeier hit wide receiver Tyler Williams with a 33-yard pass to move the ball into the red zone to eventually set up a 28-yard field goal by Reckenbeil to extend the Greyhounds' lead to 20-10 with 5:21 to go in the third quarter. The next three drives would end in punts, two by Johns Hopkins and one by the Greyhounds. Moravian would take over its first possession of the fourth quarter on the JHU 31 yard line after a 17-yard punt return by McCambridge. Six plays later Reckenbeil tied the school record with his third field goal of the game, a 30-yard kick with 11:52 to play, giving Moravian a 23-10 lead. Johns Hopkins would get one first down on its next drive before turning the ball over on downs at the Moravian 40-yard line. The Greyhounds would begin to run out the clock and picked up three first downs while moving the ball to the JHU nine-yard line. Reckenbeil came on to break both the school records for field goals in a game and total kicking points in a contest when he made a 26-yard boot with 4:48 remaining in the contest. The Blue Jays threw four straight passes but gained just two yards before turning the ball back over to the Greyhounds on the JHU 32-yard line. Moravian would run seven plays with tailback Tyler deRouen finishing off the scoring on a 12-yard touchdown run with 1:15 left in the contest. Reckenbeil made his final extra-point of the game, his 51st straight extra-point, not having missed a point-after attempt in two years, to set the final score at 33-10. Reckenbeil also moved into third in school history in overall scoring with 185 points in his career, the most by a kicker. The Blue Jays would have one more drive that ended at the Moravian 38-yard line when the clock expired. The Greyhounds, who entered the game as the top rushing team in the Centennial Conference at 295.7 yards per game, ran for 164 yards on 45 carries with Tyler deRouen having 70 yards on 21 attempts, McCambridge running for 64 yards on 13 carries and Morgan deRouen contributing 27 yards on ten attempts.
