Women's Basketball – 16-10 (Commonwealth Conference 10-4, MAC 12-7)

Last Week – Lost to #Messiah, 66-56. #Commonwealth Conference Semifinals

This Week – Wed., Feb. 27th in Eastern College Athletic Conference South First Round at site to be determined (if qualify)

Moravian, seeded third, was knocked out of the 2002 Commonwealth Conference Semifinals with a 66-56 loss at Messiah College, the second seed. The Greyhounds, making their first playoff appearance in five years, trailed just 49-48 with five minutes to play in the second half and Moravian led early with a 13-5 lead six minutes into the game. The key for the Falcons in the second half was shooting 46 percent from the floor while Moravian only shot 31 percent. Messiah was also 11 of 16 from the charity stripe in the second half while Moravian was only one for two. Junior guard Tara Wozniak (Roseland, NJ/West Essex Regional HS) and junior forward Kelly McLean (Allentown, PA/Salisbury HS) each had 14 points in the game for the Greyhounds and McLean had her second straight double-double of the season and her seventh overall with a team high 11 rebounds. Sophomore forward Tracie Shipman (Philadelphia, PA/Archbishop Ryan HS), sophomore guard Kim Smith (Gilbert, PA/Pleasant Valley HS) and freshman guard Jen Behagg (Hamburg, NJ/Pope John XXIII HS) each scored seven points for Moravian in the game while Wozniak and junior guard/forward Kristen Sarnocinski (Harleysville, PA/Germantown Academy HS) each had five rebounds. Wozniak added four steals in the contest.

The Greyhounds must wait for a possible bid from the Eastern College Athletic Conference to the 2002 South Tournament that will be announced on the afternoon of Monday, February 25th.

Men's Basketball – 14-11 (Commonwealth Conference 6-8, MAC 9-10)
