Women's Basketball – 16-10 (Commonwealth Conference 10-4, MAC 12-7)

Season Complete

Junior guard Tara Wozniak (Roseland, NJ/West Essex Regional HS) of the Moravian College women's basketball team has been named to the 2001-02 Commonwealth Conference All-Star First Team announced Wednesday.

Moravian finished the season with an overall record of 16-10 and the squad made the Commonwealth Conference Playoffs for the first time since 1997-98, falling to eventual champion Messiah College, 66-56 in the semifinals. The Greyhounds were 10-4 in the Commonwealth Conference regular season and were the third seed in the playoffs.

For the second straight year, Wozniak led Moravian in scoring with an average of 14.5 points per game. Wozniak also averaged 5.8 rebounds per contest while leading Moravian with 55 assists, 51 steals and 47 three-pointers. She added 20 blocked shots and was among the top ten in the Commonwealth Conference in scoring, steals, three-point field goal percentage (47 of 132 for 35.6 percent) and free throw percentage (93 of 122 for 76.2 percent). Wozniak, who was a Commonwealth Conference Second Team All-Star last year, needs just four points next season to become the 13th player in Moravian history to score 1,000 points in a career.

Moravian is currently 22nd in the nation in free throw percentage at 72.0 percent (479 of 665).

Men's Basketball – 14-11 (Commonwealth Conference 6-8, MAC 9-10)

Season Complete

Freshman forward Brandon Zaleski (Hackettstown, NJ/Hackettstown HS) of the Moravian men's basketball team has been named to the Commonwealth Conference All-Star Second Team announced Tuesday and Zaleski was also named the Commonwealth Conference's Rookie of the Year by the conference coaches.

Moravian finished the 2001-02 season with an overall record of 14-11 and a 6-8 slate in the Commonwealth Conference, which put the squad in fifth place. The Greyhounds are currently ranked as the top free throw shooting teams in the nation at 79.5 percent (407 of 512).

Zaleski started all but one of the team's 25 games during his freshman season and he finished the year with a scoring average of 19.1 points per game, second in the Commonwealth Conference. His 477 points was the seventh highest single season total in Moravian history. Zaleski also averaged 6.6 rebounds per contest (sixth in the conference) with a total of 164 boards. Zaleski, one of the top 25 shooters in the nation, finished the season with a 59.9 shooting percentage (191 of 319) to lead the Commonwealth Conference and he was fourth on the Moravian squad in free throw percentage at 82.9 percent (92 of 111). His attempts and percentage ranked him third in the Commonwealth Conference. Zaleski led the Greyhounds with 17 blocked shots and he added 24 assists and 32 steals in his debut season.
