The Greyhounds moved a step closer to a second straight playoff berth with a 63-57 victory over Elizabethtown College in Commonwealth Conference action. Moravian jumped out to a 32-24 halftime lead and won the game at the foul line as the Greyhounds made 18 of 24 free throw attempts while the Blue Jays were just eight of nine at the charity stripe. Elizabethtown made two more field goals than Moravian in the game and the Blue Jays had ten more rebounds but the Greyhounds forced 20 turnovers. Moravian had a balanced scoring attack with three players in double figures. Junior guard Kim Hughes (Manasquan, NJ/St. Rose HS) tossed in a team high 14 points while junior guard Sarah Onkotz (Catasauqua, PA/Catasauqua HS) scored 13 points. Onkotz dished out a team high four assists and she had four rebounds. Freshman forward Stephanie Seaman (Bethlehem, PA/Bethlehem Catholic HS) netted 11 points and had a team high eight rebounds. Senior forward Kelly McLean (Allentown, PA/Salisbury HS) returned to the Greyhound line-up and contributed six points and five rebounds. Freshman guard Catherine Golden (Bethlehem, PA/ Freedom HS) added six points and three assists while senior guard Tara Wozniak (Roseland, NJ/West Essex Regional HS) scored five points. Junior forward Tracie Shipman (Philadelphia, PA/Archbishop Ryan HS) grabbed seven rebounds, and she added four points.

Moravian clinched its second straight trip to the Commonwealth Conference Playoffs with a 69-62 victory over Widener University in conference action. The win also gave Moravian 17 victories for the first time since the 1997-98 season. The Greyhounds led 27-25 at halftime and out scored the Pioneers 42-37 in the second half. The key to the game for Moravian was at the foul line where the Greyhounds connected on 16 of 23 attempts including 14 of 20 in the second half while Widener named just 13 of its 22 free throw attempts. The Greyhounds also forced the Pioneers into 22 turnovers. Moravian had a balanced scoring attack with three players in double figures. Wozniak led the way with 14 points while Shipman pulled down a team high ten rebounds and scored 12 points. Seaman added ten points, seven rebounds and three assists. Sophomore guard Jen Behagg (Hamburg, NJ/Pope John XXIII HS) scored nine points in the game had had three steals while Hughes netted seven points. Onkotz contributed eight points and four rebounds. Golden added five points while McLean had four points and four rebounds off the bench to give her 700 rebounds for her career, the fourth Moravian player to reach that number.
