Messiah would score the game's next five runs with a single tally in the second inning and four runs in the bottom of the fourth inning. The Greyhounds' first run of the inning scored on an error and the other two crossed the plate on two-RBI triple by Brey. The two schools would start using the international tiebreaker in the top of the tenth inning by placing a runner at second base. Moravian failed to score and Messiah pushed a run across for the victory. Moravian had ten hits in the game with two each from Brey, sophomore outfielder Krissy Cianfichi (Warrington, PA/Central Bucks East SH) and junior first baseman Jenn Hastings (Pottstown, PA/Owen J.
