Women's Tennis – 17-1 (MAC Commonwealth Conference 7-0, MAC 12-1)

Last Week – Lost to ^Scranton, 7-2. ^MAC Playoffs

Season Complete

The Lady Greyhounds had their 47-match winning streak snapped last week in the 1999 Middle Atlantic Conference Championship match at the University of Scranton with a 7-2 loss. Moravian headed into the match as the three-time defending MAC Champions and having not lost since September 13th of 1997. Earning victories in the match for Moravian were junior Autumn Zander (Riegelsville/Bethlehem Catholic HS) in singles play and sophomores Katie Copf (Allentown/Salisbury HS) and Lacey Leverberg (East Stroudsburg/Stroudsburg HS) in doubles action. Head coach Dawn Ketterman-Benner was named the 1999 MAC Commonwealth Conference Coach of the Year for leading Moravian to a 17-1 record and its fourth straight MAC Finals appearance.

For the second straight year, Moravian hosted the Middle Atlantic Conference Women's Tennis Individual Championships at the Hoffman Tennis Courts. Two Lady Greyhounds, Copf and freshman Jen Genevese (Whitehall/Whitehall HS) competed in the singles tournament and both earned 6-0, 6-0 wins in the first round before losing in straight sets in the second round. Moravian also had three doubles teams in competition. The duo of senior Lyn Ramsey (Perkasie/Pennridge HS) and junior Courtney Rice (Nazareth/Nazareth Area HS) as well as the team of Zander and Leverberg were knocked out after their first match. Senior Marnie Heller (Shillington/Governor Mifflin HS) and sophomore Corinne Kleinsmith (Shillington/Governor Mifflin HS), the defending doubles champions, were seeded third in the tournament and received a bye in the first round. The tandem won a pair of matches in straight sets to advance to the quarterfinals where their season was ended in a straight set loss to the top seed from Albright College.

Women's Soccer – 12-5 (MAC Commonwealth Conference 5-2, MAC 9-2)

*Last Week – Defeated #Drew, 1-0; Defeated *Widener, 2-1. #MAC match, MAC Commonwealth match

Season Complete

The women's soccer team closed out the 1999 season with a pair of victories to reach the 12 win plateau for the third time in four seasons. Moravian won its last road contest of the year, a 1-0 thriller at Drew University, on a goal in the final ten minutes by junior forward Lindsey Forman (Sharon, MA/Sharon HS).

The Lady Greyhounds won their final home match of the year by rallying from a goal down in the last seven minutes to defeated Widener University, 2-1. Sophomore defender Becky Caulwell (Chester, NJ/Mt. Olive HS) tied the match at 1-1 with just under seven minutes remaining in the match of a crossing pass from senior forward Carli Miller (Wyomissing/Wilson West Lawn HS). Miller, the all-time leading scorer in Moravian history, male or female, closed out her career in style by netting an unassisted goal with under three minutes left in the match to give Moravian the win. Miller completed her career with 59 goals and 24 assists for 142 points.

Junior goalie Becky Roe (Worcester, NY/Worcester Central HS) played both games in goal for Moravian, raising her career record to 29-19-1. The shutout of Drew was the third solo shutout of 1999 for Roe and the 13th of her career. Roe had eight saves in the two victories last week to finish the year with 35 saves and a goals against average of 1.56.
